PURPOSE AND OUTCOME

Course Overview

The causal factors, responses, and outcomes associated with HIV/AIDS in the rural south are complex and steeped within a culture that poses unique barriers to both prevention and the provision of services. The overall goal of this course is to use an ecological framework to explore and understand multilevel factors associated with (1) risk and protective behaviors; (2) testing and disclosure of HIV status; (3) availability and sources of social support; (4) need for and use of medical, psychological, and social services; and (5) the development and use of culturally appropriate interventions.

Relation to Program Outcomes This course provides primary gains or reinforcement of the following competencies:

MPH Core Competencies
Social and Behavioral Science
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Critically describe and evaluate the state of public health social and behavioral science research and literature. • Apply social and behavioral science theories and concepts to public health problems. • Describe and apply the social ecological framework to public health problems.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand and apply the principles of community participation in public health research and interventions. • Demonstrate an understanding of health disparities in the US and the underlying role of power differentials to disparities.
Communication
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deliver oral presentations using recognized criteria for effective information dissemination • Demonstrate accurate comprehension and interpretation when listening to others • Adapt language and delivery modalities to specific audiences • Facilitate collective information sharing, discussion and problem solving
Diversity and Cultural Proficiency
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstrate sensitivity to varied cultural, ethnic socioeconomic backgrounds of individuals and groups, such as: education, health literacy, race, gender, age, profession, political preferences, health conditions, religion/spirituality, place of origin, sexual orientation and gender identity • Identify the impact cultural of values on attitudes and expectations of others • Recognize the varied levels of health access among individuals and within communities

Course Objectives and/or Goals

By the completion of this course students should be able to:

1. Discuss the impact the HIV/AIDS epidemic is having on the Rural South.
2. Describe the epidemiology of HIV/AIDS in addition to prevention, clinical and treatment strategies.
3. Understand the ecological factors associated with HIV/AIDS prevention and management in the rural south.
4. Discuss the psychosocial and cultural factors associated with HIV/AIDS prevention and management in the rural south.
5. Demonstrate an understanding of HIV/AIDS health disparities in the rural south and the ecological factors associated with these disparities.
6. Understand HIV risk factors associated with special populations in the rural south.
7. Identify evidence-based approaches to address HIV/AIDS prevention and management issues in the rural south within an ecological framework.
8. Identify organizational and community resources and deficits for HIV/AIDS interventions in the rural south.

Instructional Methods

The course is offered online and is divided into five modules. Each module is made up of the following:

1. Lectures: These are for general orientation. Students are responsible for all the material presented in the course and assigned readings.
2. Readings and Resources: In addition to the lectures, supplementary readings and resources will be posted in the course. The reading and resource list may be supplemented during the course.
3. Discussions: Students are expected to participate in discussion boards throughout the duration of this course. Grades will be assigned based on accuracy, depth, and thoughtfulness of content.
4. Assessments: A variety of assessments will be used in this course, including but not limited to assignments, quizzes, and projects.

Course Announcements

Class announcements will be sent via the announcement tool in eLearning. Depending on your CANVAS notification settings, you may or may not be notified via email. Therefore, you are responsible for all information in these announcements whether or not you see them in your email.

What is expected of you?

You are expected to actively engage in the course throughout the semester. Your participation fosters a rich course experience for you and your peers that facilitates overall mastery of the course objectives.

For every 1 credit hour in which you enroll in a graduate course, you will spend approximately two to three hours outside of class studying. Therefore, you should expect to spend three hours “in class” per week and six to nine hours of studying per week.

Course Materials and Technology

Required textbook and course readings

There are no required texts for this course. Instead, the student will select one of the four books listed below to read for the “Book Discussion” assignment using VoiceThread. I have tried to identify books examining the different levels of the social-ecological model. Keeping in mind that factors at one level may influence factors at another level.

Please choose ONE of the following books. It is ultimately your decision, but please keep in mind that the book that you select will be the book that will be used to complete your required book discussion assignment.

Book selections:

1. Brown, M., Martin, C. (2008). The Naked Truth: Young, Beautiful, and (HIV) Positive. Ecco; Illustrated edition. ISBN-13: 978-0061562396
2. Cleage, P. (2009). What Looks LIKE Crazy On an Ordinary Day. William Morrow Paperbacks. ISBN-13: 978-0061710384
3. Skerritt, A.J. (2011). Ashamed to Die: Silence, Denial, and the AIDS Epidemic in the South. Lawrence Hill Books. ISBN-13: 978-1569768143
4. Verghese, A. (1995). My Own Country; A Doctor’s Story. Vintage. ISBN-13: 978-0679752929

Additional Required Readings

May be provided in the modules and posted on the course website (CANVAS) by the instructor.

Course Website

The course website is available on Canvas at <http://elearning.ufl.edu>. The weekly schedule, additional course materials, and links to submit course assignments and weekly discussion questions are available through this website. You will log into the course website using your Gatorlink ID and password.

Technological Requirements

Everyone must have access to a webcam or video camera. Inexpensive web cameras can be purchased at any media or discount store, or online. Mac users may also need to purchase an external microphone in order to participate in the live book discussion.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING

Assignments

Syllabus quiz: (0% of Final grade): To start this course, you MUST open the “Getting Started Module” in the Modules tool in the course and take the Syllabus Quiz. The quiz is available from January 5th – January 7th. You MUST earn a 100% score on this quiz for the course materials to open in the course site. If you do not receive a 100% score, please review the feedback on your quiz attempt and retake as soon as possible. This is an important element to ensure that all students are aware of the curriculum requirements for this course and only a 100% will open the rest of the course material. If you have ANY difficulty with this quiz, please send an email to me as soon as possible. Students are required to print a copy of the syllabus from the syllabus tool in the course.

Introduction video (4% of Final Grade): During the first week of class, you will create a one-to-two-minute video introducing yourself to your classmates.

Course Assignments (16% of Final Grade): There are three assignments for the course; however, one assignment has two parts. Each assignment is worth 4% of your total grade. In-depth instructions for each assignment will be provided in the “Assignments” tool on the course website. All assignments should be submitted online through the Canvas system. You also have the option of submitting your assignments early. It is a student’s responsibility to submit your assignment attachments correctly within Canvas. Be sure not only that you HAVE actually made an attachment, but that you have made the CORRECT attachment. Please check on your submission after submitting as not submitting it correctly could count as submitting it late if this is corrected after the due date. The assignments in this course will allow unlimited re-submissions to make any corrections you wish to make before the due date. The assignments are due week 6, 7, and 9.

Reflective Writing Papers (18% of Final Grade): There will be four reflection papers that should be done independently. Each assignment is worth 4.5% of your total grade. These reflection papers should be no more than 2-pages and will cover a range of topics and themes to measure your knowledge of the content. You may be asked to provide your reaction to a video, case study, research seminar presentation, or journal article. Please follow the instructions carefully for each reaction paper assignment within the Canvas course site. Rubrics for each assignment will be provided within Canvas.

- Reflection Paper 1: State of the HIV epidemic in the South (Week 3)
- Reflection Paper 2: Ending the HIV epidemic in the South (Week 12)
- Reflection Paper 3: Ending the HIV epidemic in the South (Week 14)
- Reflection Paper 4: Course reflection (Week 16)

Discussion Posts (12% of Final Grade): You will be required to participate in three discussion posts during the semester. Each discussion is worth 4% of your total grade. If you are required to post on the discussion board, it will be indicated within that week’s announcement, or you will see it within the course calendar. You must post at least twice to each discussion board unless otherwise indicated in the assignment description. Active participation in the online discussions helps create a learning community and encourages peer interaction, presents different perspectives, and challenges ideas. Each student is required to make one original post to the questions posed in the discussion board. Your response to the one other student’s post should be thoughtful and should further promote the conversation. Original posts and replies should be thoughtful and comprehensive, therefore it is expected that students cite material using APA 7th edition provided from the lectures and readings, as well as outside materials if appropriate.

- Discussion 1: State of the HIV epidemic in the South (Week 2)
- Discussion 2: Factors driving the HIV epidemic in the South (Week 5)
- Discussion 3: Ending the HIV epidemic in the South (Week 11)

The exchange of ideas between colleagues is a key aspect of graduate learning and is a required activity in this course. Therefore, in order to receive credit, you must post your response to the posted discussion board questions by Thursday at 11:59pm ET. In addition, you must post a response to one other student’s post by Sunday at 11:59pm.

Your grade on the discussion board is based on participation. Each discussion board assignment is worth 25 points. However, in order to receive full credit for these posts, you must follow these guidelines:

- Posts should be between 225-250 words
- Posts should be relevant to the topic being discussed but should also attempt to introduce a new point of view or piece of information or otherwise further the discussion.
- Posts should use correct grammar, punctuation and vocabulary appropriate for a university-level course.
- When applicable, posts must cite material using APA 7th edition.

Book Discussion (20% of Final Grade): During the semester, you will be required to read ONE of the optional books (previously listed). During the first week of class, you will need to sign-up for your chosen book. It is important to note that only four* students will be allowed to sign-up for per book. Moreover, you will be required to participate in only the discussion pertaining to your chosen book using VoiceThread. Full instructions on this VoiceThread assignment are located under the Course Documents tab. In order to fully participate in this discussion, please be sure that you read your chosen book. You will participate in a VoiceThread book discussion for your chosen book during week 6, 7, 8, or 9.

Final Project (30% of Final Grade): The final project will be completed as an individual assignment and consists of two parts. At the beginning of the semester, each student will choose one of the 16 Southern U.S. states excluding Florida that has been disproportionately impacted by HIV/AIDS. Part one will consist of writing a 4-page brief report. The brief report should include these four sections: 1) state of the HIV in their southern state, 2) social-ecological factors driving the epidemic in their state, 3) summary of HIV prevention and care approaches in their state, 4) the way forward – ending the HIV epidemic in their state. The brief report should utilize class readings, lectures, and other academic/research sources (minimum of 15 sources are required, but no more than 20 sources). Students should begin working on this assignment as soon as possible and develop the brief report throughout the semester. Students will be provided with an example of a brief report during the first week of class. In part two, each student will create a one-page infographic with a brief summary of the information found in the brief report. Students will record and upload a two-minute video presentation using zoom to course website. Each student will be responsible for responding to two classmates' presentations. Parts 1 and 2 are due Week 15.

Assignments and Grade Components:

All assignments are open for early submission before the due date. If you need an extension, you must contact the instructor and online administrator in advance.

Assignments

Grading

Requirement	Due date	Points or % of final grade (% must sum to 100%)
Syllabus Quiz	Week 1 to unlock course	-
Introduce Yourself Infographic	Week 1	40 points or 4% of final grade
3 Assignments (40 points each)	Ongoing	160 points or 16% of final grade

3 Discussions (40 points each)	Ongoing	120 points or 12% of final grade
4 Reflection Papers (45 points each)	Ongoing	180 points or 18% of final grade
Book Discussion	Week 6, 7, 8, or 9	200 points or 20% of final grade
Final Project	Ongoing	300 points or 30% of final grade
Total		1000 points or 100%

Point system used (i.e., how do course points translate into letter grades).

Example:

Letter Grade	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+	C	C-	D+	D	D-	E
Points earned	1000-930	920-900	890-870	860-830	820-800	790-770	760-730	720-700	690-670	660-630	620-600	<600

Please be aware that a C- is not an acceptable grade for graduate students. The GPA for graduate students must be 3.0 based on 5000 level courses and above to graduate. A grade of C counts toward a graduate degree only if based on credits in courses numbered 5000 or higher that have been earned with a B+ or higher.

Letter Grade	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+	C	D+	D	D-	E	WF	I	NG	S-U
Grade Points	4.0	3.67	3.33	3.0	2.67	2.33	2.0	1.33	1.0	0.67	0.0	0.0	0.0	0.0	0.0

Policy Related to Make up Exams or Other Work

Requirements: Students are responsible for all course material, including reading all required materials prior to each lecture. The course is conducted in eLearning and all assignments, course lectures, discussions, emails and quizzes will be delivered in this medium. Students should also read your email and announcements in the course several times a week. Please note that announcements and emails sent out from the course site will go to your UFL email address (versus your Google, Yahoo, etc.), please check this mail at <http://webmail.ufl.edu> regularly also. Students should also reference the calendar in the course to keep up with weekly deadlines.

Late assignments: Assignments turned in up to 24 hours late will be discounted 5 points of the grade they would otherwise receive. Assignments turned in more than 24 hours late will be discounted at an additional 5 points per day unless arrangements have been made in advance with the instructor. Assignments turned in at 11:59:01 PM are LATE, the computer counts on-time submission up to 11:59:00 PM, so please do not wait until 11:54 or later to submit an assignment unless you understand that your assignment may be marked late. It is the responsibility of students to open your submission and verify not only that an assignment was submitted, but that an attachment was made and was the correct attachment.

Updated January 3, 2022

Missed Assignments: Missed assignments and discussion posts will contribute zero points toward your final grade.

Makeup Assignments: If you are unable to meet a deadline in this course for approved reasons and have given prior notification to the instructor when possible, you will be given adequate time to make up any coursework missed. All other late or missed work will receive a grade of zero. Make-up exams will be provided only in cases of excused absences or conflict during final exams per university policy and MUST be discussed with the instructor in advance. Make-up exams will differ from the regularly scheduled exam.

Please note: Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues MUST be accompanied by the ticket number received from LSS when the problem was reported to them. The ticket number will document the time and date of the problem. You MUST e-mail me within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if you wish to request a make-up.

Policy Related to Required Class Attendance

Please note all faculty are bound by the UF policy for excused absences. Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (<https://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations/#text>). Additional information can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS, ROLES, AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR INPUT

Expectations Regarding Course Behavior

Communication Guidelines

When to Send an E-Mail to the Instructor:

Contacting the course Instructor, Dr. Canidate, when you have: a scheduling conflict, suspect a grading error, family emergency, technical issue or are behind in the course. You may also contact the course instructor for clarification on course materials. The instructor will hold virtual office hours each week or she can be reached via Outlook email. <http://studentlife.online.mph.ufl.edu/when-to/when-to-send-e-mail-to-the-instructor/>

Please keep the following things in mind when emailing the instructor.

1. Be Formal- Use a proper salutation when emailing and finishing with a “Thank you” is always appreciated. This is true for other professors and/or employers.
2. Use a subject line, please don’t leave it blank.
3. Specify who you are by first and last name and specify which class you are taking before diving into the specifics.
4. Be thorough- Any time you send a message, you should have two things in mind: goal and audience. Your audience here is me, your professor. Your goal could be any number of things, from clarifying the reading assignment to asking for an extension. Whatever your goal maybe, you’ll want to anticipate any questions I may have and incorporate the information into your message.
5. Be kind- Professors are people, too. We have friends, families, hobbies and favorite foods. So, when you email a professor, remember that you are not writing to an entity, a building or a computer — you are communicating with a real person. Be kind, be thankful and don’t come across as demanding.
6. Allow time- If you need advice or clarification on an assignment, avoid emailing the night before it is due. You might not get a timely reply.

7. Proofread- The final step, proofreading ensures that you come across as professional and caring. An email full of errors and faulty sentence structure may distract from your message.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to act in accordance with the University of Florida policy on academic integrity. As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge:

“We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.”

You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

“On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For additional information regarding Academic Integrity, please see Student Conduct and Honor Code or the Graduate Student Website for additional details:

<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>

<http://gradschool.ufl.edu/students/introduction.html>

Please remember cheating, lying, misrepresentation, or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable and inexcusable behavior.

Professionalism and COVID

As students pursuing a path in the health professions or public health, it is crucial to demonstrate professional behaviors that reflect integrity and commitment to the health of patients, fellow health professionals, and to populations we serve. To accomplish this, a strong responsibility for the well-being of others must be evident in our decisions, along with accountability for our actions. Professionalism in the health disciplines requires adherence to high standards of conduct that begin long before graduation. This is particularly true during times of health emergencies such as the COVID pandemic, given our professional habits can have a direct impact upon the health of persons entrusted to us.

If you are not vaccinated, get vaccinated. Vaccines are readily available at no cost and have been demonstrated to be safe and effective against the COVID-19 virus. Visit this link for details on where to get your shot, including options that do not require an appointment:

<https://coronavirus.ufhealth.org/vaccinations/vaccine-availability/>. Students who receive the first dose of the vaccine somewhere off-campus and/or outside of Gainesville can still receive their second dose on campus.

In response to COVID-19, the following professional practices are in place to maintain your learning environment, to enhance the safety of our in-classroom interactions, and to protect the health and safety of ourselves, our patients, our neighbors, and our loved ones.

- You are required to wear approved face coverings at all times while in Health Science Center classrooms and within Health Science Center buildings even if you are vaccinated.
- If you are sick, stay home and self-quarantine. Please visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect website about next steps, retake the questionnaire and schedule your test for no sooner than 24 hours after your symptoms began. Please call your primary care provider if you are ill and need immediate care or the UF Student Health Care Center at 352-392-1161 (or email covid@shcc.ufl.edu) to be evaluated for testing and to receive further instructions about returning to campus. UF Health Screen, Test & Protect offers guidance when you are sick, have been exposed to someone who has tested positive or have tested positive yourself. Visit the UF Health Screen, Test & Protect website for more information.
- Continue to follow healthy habits, including best practices like frequent hand washing.
- Avoid crowded places (including gatherings/parties with more than 10 people)

Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class. Hand sanitizing stations will be located in every classroom.

Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work. If you are withheld from campus by the Department of Health through Screen, Test & Protect you are not permitted to use any on campus facilities. Students attempting to attend campus activities when withheld from campus will be referred to the Dean of Students Office.

Continue to regularly visit coronavirus.UFHealth.org and coronavirus.ufl.edu for up-to-date information about COVID-19 and vaccination.

COVID-19 Symptoms

See <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/symptoms-testing/symptoms.html> for information about COVID-19 symptoms, which may include fever, cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fatigue, chills, muscle or body aches, headache, sore throat, congestion or runny nose, nausea or vomiting, diarrhea, and loss of taste or smell.

Recording Within the Course:

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Online Faculty Course Evaluation Process

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you require classroom accommodation because of a disability, it is strongly recommended you register with the Dean of Students Office <http://www.dso.ufl.edu> within the first week of class or as soon as you believe you might be eligible for accommodations. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation of accommodations to you, which you must then give to me as the instructor of the course to receive accommodations. Please do this as soon as possible after you receive the letter. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester. The College is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to assist students in their coursework.

Counseling and Student Health

Students sometimes experience stress from academic expectations and/or personal and interpersonal issues that may interfere with their academic performance. If you find yourself facing issues that have the potential to or are already negatively affecting your coursework, you are encouraged to talk with an instructor and/or seek help through University resources available to you.

- The Counseling and Wellness Center 352-392-1575 offers a variety of support services such as psychological assessment and intervention and assistance for math and test anxiety. Visit their web site for more information: <http://www.counseling.ufl.edu>. Online and in person assistance is available.
- U Matter We Care website: <http://www.umatter.ufl.edu/>. If you are feeling overwhelmed or stressed, you can reach out for help through the You Matter We Care website, which is staffed by Dean of Students and Counseling Center personnel.

- The Student Health Care Center at Shands is a satellite clinic of the main Student Health Care Center located on Fletcher Drive on campus. Do not wait until you reach a crisis to come in and talk with us. We have helped many students through stressful situations impacting their academic performance. You are not alone so do not be afraid to ask for assistance.

Diversity Statement

I consider this classroom to be a place where you will be treated with respect, and I welcome individuals of all ages, backgrounds, beliefs, ethnicities, genders, gender identities, gender expressions, national origins, religious affiliations, sexual orientations, ability – and other visible and nonvisible differences. All members of this class are expected to contribute to a respectful, welcoming, and inclusive environment for every other member of the class.

Inclusive Learning Environment

Public health and health professions are based on the belief in human dignity and on respect for the individual. As we share our personal beliefs inside or outside of the classroom, it is always with the understanding that we value and respect diversity of background, experience, and opinion, where every individual feel valued. We believe in, and promote, openness and tolerance of differences in ethnicity and culture, and we respect differing personal, spiritual, religious and political values. We further believe that celebrating such diversity enriches the quality of the educational experiences we provide our students and enhances our own personal and professional relationships. We embrace The University of Florida's Non-Discrimination Policy, which reads, "The University shall actively promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to laws against discrimination. The University is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information and veteran status as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act." If you have questions or concerns about your rights and responsibilities for inclusive learning environment, please see your instructor or refer to the Office of Multicultural & Diversity Affairs website: www.multicultural.ufl.edu
