

Master of Public Health Program Internship Site Form

About the Program

The College of Public Health and Health Professions' MPH Program is accredited by the Council on for Public Health (CEPH). For our college's accreditation, "MPH students demonstrate competency attainment through applied practice experiences." (CEPH, 2021). Our program has defined the internship and the completion of two work products created during the internship as the metric for demonstrating competency attainment.
